

Year of Call: 1999

Clerks

Practice Manager

Martin Ellis

Chief Executive & Director of Clerking

Tony McDaid

Contact a Clerk

Tel: +44 (0) 845 210 5555

Fax: +44 (0) 121 606 1501

employment@no5.com

Charles Price

Employment

Charles Price has enjoyed stints as the employment lawyer at Bristol and Sheffield City Councils and contributes articles on employment law to various publications.

An expert in discrimination cases, Charles has been instructed in cases of sex, race and disability discrimination. Further he has extensive experience in Unfair dismissal, redundancy, contracts of employment, pregnancy related dismissal, constructive dismissal, minimum wage claims, compromise agreements, post termination covenants, holiday pay disputes, parental leave, deductions from wages, variation of contractual terms, whistleblowing, business transfers, harassment and breach of contract claims.

As well as enjoying more than 11 years of representation in employment tribunals, Charles has considerable experience of advisory and drafting work and appearing in employment related High Court proceedings. Additionally, Charles regularly appears in the EAT for both Appellants and Respondents. Charles has been instructed by both Claimants and Respondents in up to 5 week long cases.

Representation for Notable Clients:

- *Jaguar
- *Centaur Publishing
- *Bristol City Council
- *Sheffield City Council
- *South Gloucestershire Council
- *The BMA
- *Unison
- *Unite

Charles writes employment law articles for his own website at www.charlesprice.net, and is the author of a popular employment blog, www.employmentlawuk.blogspot.com.

Charles is a Public Access Barrister and can therefore be instructed by members of the public.

QUALIFICATIONS

LLB (hons) LLM
Bar Vocational Course
Approved for Public Access work