

Discrimination Law Association

DLA Midlands Inaugural Event

No5 Barristers' Chambers,
Fountain Court, Steelhouse Lane
Birmingham, B4 6DR

Monday, 3rd July 2017
17:30 - 19:00

1 Learning Hour

No5 Barristers' Chambers will be hosting the Discrimination Law Association's inaugural event in the Midlands.

The DLA is delighted to announce that its long-cherished ambition to set up regional representation in large centres outside London (the subject of a motion passed at the AGM in February 2016) will finally be realised when an inaugural event takes place in the Midlands on Monday 3rd July.

Programme

Catherine Rayner

17:30 Registration

Refreshments will be provided.

17:45 Welcome

Catherine Rayner, Chair - DLA

The evening will be introduced by Catherine Rayner, Chair of the DLA, to celebrate its first event in the Midlands and to provide a brief overview of the organisation.

Helen Barney

18:00 Workshop

'Handling disability discrimination complaints - how best to succeed'

Helen Barney, Barrister - No5 Employment Law Group

This will be an interactive session exploring the pitfalls and ways to success in pursuing a disability discrimination claim, allowing for a detailed discussion of tactics.

David McBride

19:00 Close

David McBride, Midlands Representative - DLA

David will close the evening and briefly discuss the future of DLA in the Midlands.

Register

Click here to register for this free event or follow this link: www.no5.com/event-pages/dlamidlands/