

Privacy Notice – Richard Grimshaw

Please read the following information carefully. This privacy notice contains information about what data I collect and store about you and why. It also tells you who I share this information with, the security mechanisms I have put in place to protect your data and how to contact me if you have a complaint.

I, Richard Grimshaw, collect, use and am responsible for personal information about you or your client. When I do this, I am the Data Controller of this information for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation and other applicable data protection laws.

Information collected by me

When instructed, I collect the following personal information that you provide to me:

- Information that you provide via an email address, post and any other method;
- Name and Job Title;
- Contact Information including home address, telephone number, date of birth and email address;
- A record of any correspondence;
- Information about your instruction which may include personal data; and
- Some sensitive personal information when required as part of your instruction.

Information collected from other sources

I may collect the following information from other sources:

- Contact details, name, home address, telephone number, date of birth and email address;
- Details of your instructions;
- Information provided by a solicitor relating to the instruction;
- Any evidence obtained throughout your instruction, which could contain personal opinions, political beliefs, medical history, and other special categories of data;
- Some sensitive personal information when required as part of your instruction.

How I use your personal information

I use your personal information for the following purposes:

- To provide a legal service to you or your client;
- Act on behalf of the client; and
- Investigate on behalf of the client.

Legal reasons I collect and use your personal information

I rely on your instructions as a contract to act on your behalf for the legal basis for processing your information.

Who will I share your personal information with?

I will share information with No5 Chambers who act as a Data Processor.

I have relationships with other third parties (such as those who provide No5 Chambers' IT infrastructure) that I may share data relating to your instruction with. I may share your name, address, date of birth and case information. This data sharing enables me to carry out contractual and legal obligations in order to provide a service to you, or your client, and conduct administrative support. For a list of these third parties, please contact myself.

I will share personal information with law enforcement agencies if required by applicable law. I will not share your personal information with any other third parties without your consent.

Transfer of your information outside the European Economic Area (EEA)

It may be necessary to transfer your personal information outside the EEA, or to an international organisation, in order to adhere to my contractual obligations to provide a service. A list of all countries that your personal data may be transferred to can be provided to you upon request.

If you would like any further information, please contact me on RGR@no5.com.

How long will I store your personal data?

I hold data securely and in line with any regulatory obligations. Throughout the process of your instruction personal and sensitive data is taken and is required to ensure that all of our information is correct, so I can handle your instruction in a timely and lawful manner. Any documentation, requests, evidence and associated notes or telephone recordings will be stored electronically to which access is restricted on a need to know basis. No5 Chambers and clerks/employees within No5 Chambers will need access to your personal and sensitive information in order to conduct our contractual obligations. This information will be kept for at least 15 years and subsequently deleted after this time.

Your Rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation, you have a number of important rights that you can exercise free of charge. In summary, these rights are:

- Transparency over how I use your personal data and fair processing of your information;
- Access to your personal information and other supplementary information;
- Require me correct any mistakes or complete missing information I hold on you;
- Require me to erase your personal information in certain circumstances;
- Receive a copy of the personal information you have provided to me or have this information be sent to a third party, this will be provided to you or the third party in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format;
- Object at any time to processing of your personal information for direct marketing;
- Object in certain other situations to the continued processing of your personal information;
- Restrict my processing of your personal information in certain circumstances;
- Request not to be subject to automated decision making which produce legal effects that concern you or affect you in a significantly similar way.

If you want more information about your rights under the GDPR please see the Guidance from the Information Commissioners Office - Individual's rights under the GDPR.

If you want to exercise any of these rights, please:

- Email, call or write to me: RGR@no5.com; 0121 606 0500; No5 Chambers, Fountain Court, Steelhouse Lane, Birmingham. B4 6DR.
- Provide information so that I can identify you, for example a copy of your Passport, driver's license, utility bill etc. I may need to contact you to request further information to verify your identity;
- Let me have proof of your identity and address;
- State the right or rights that you wish to exercise.

I will respond to you within one month from when I receive your request.

How to make a complaint?

I hope that you are happy with the service I provide and that I can resolve any issues or complaints that arise. Please get in touch if you have any concerns.

The General Data Protection Regulation also gives you the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the European Union (or European Economic Area) state where you work, normally live or where the alleged infringement of data protection laws occurred. The UK supervisory authority is the Information Commissioner's Office who can be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.

Security

I take information security seriously and want to ensure that you and your client are aware of what procedures and processes I have in place to support this. My IT is provided by No5 Chambers who have undergone a risk assessment and mitigation process to help safeguard any of your data held on my IT systems. They have third party agreements in place which clearly define how any data I provide to them is processed in accordance with this policy. I conduct reviews of policies and data on an annual basis to ensure that no data is kept for longer than is necessary and the relevant retention periods are adhered to. I complete regular training on the GDPR and information security.

Future Processing

I do not intend to process your personal information for any reason other than stated within this privacy notice. If this changes, I will inform you by your preferred method of contact which we will have obtained from the outset.

Changes to this privacy notice

This privacy notice was published in February 2021. Privacy practices may change this policy from time to time. When I do, I will inform you by your preferred method of contact.

Contact me

If you have any questions about this privacy notice, or the information I hold about you, please contact me directly and we will happily discuss this with you.

The best way to reach me is to contact me by email at RGR@no5.com or write to me at No5 Chambers, Fountain Court, Steelhouse Lane, Birmingham. B4 6DR.

Alternative formats

If it would be helpful to have this notice provided in another format (for example: in another language, audio, braille) please contact me.