Clinical Negligence

Year of Call: 2004

Email Clerks: mt@no5.com

Mamta practices exclusively in the fields of clinical negligence and personal injury acting for both Claimants and Defendants. She is consistently recognised in the legal directories. The latest entry in Legal 500 2023 quotes, “Mamta is an excellent senior junior and one of the most thorough and reliable counsel. Her medical knowledge and attention to detail when questioning experts are impressive.” Chambers and Partners 2023 notes, “she is excellent with clients and hard-working. Mamta is very empathetic and understanding. She has a good eye for detail and really cares for what she does.”

Mamta is dedicated to working as part of the legal team alongside her instructing solicitors and delivering a first-class service whilst making a difference for her clients. Mamta is often instructed in the most delicate of cases given her sensitive and empathetic approach. Mamta regularly works on complex matters including those involving multiple Defendants and high value awards, both in her own right and when acting as junior with Leading Counsel.

In respect of her CN practice, Mamta has extensive experience in all areas of medical negligence. Her caseload includes brain injuries, obstetrics, leg amputations, sepsis, ophthalmology, anaesthesia, orthopaedic, cosmetic procedures, oncology, cardiology, pharmacology, care/nursing homes, diabetic and spinal injury cases.

Further details of Mamta’s CN experience can be found under her specialist profiles and a selection of her recent caseload is below.
