

Anne Smallwood

Call: 1977

"Anne is a very experienced family finance practitioner specialising in ancillary relief following divorce or separation. She is regularly instructed in cases of substantial value involving corporate assets, foreign property of land and farming issues. Many of her instructions have an international dimension. She is empathetic, but provides realistic and clear advice, with one eye on strategy for achieving the best result"

Chambers UK 2024

Anne Smallwood has been practising exclusively in family law since 1988, and specialising particularly in Financial Remedies following Divorce and Judicial Separation.

Cases routinely involve very substantial assets, corporate assets, and cases raising complex issues relating to land, farming and foreign property.

Financial expertise extends also to cases relating to : i) financial provision on termination of cohabitation; ii) the Trust of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996; iii) Applications under Schedule 1 Children Act 1989, relating to children of unmarried parents;
