

Joshua Purser

Call: 2016

Joshua Purser enjoys a varied practice prosecuting and defending weighty matters across a broad spectrum of criminal law. He brings a sharp wit and a forensic attention to detail to all cases in which he is instructed. Joshua has experience in complex conspiracy cases involving child sexual exploitation, County Lines drug supply, serious organised crime and homicide both led and acting as junior alone.

In addition to his work in the law, he contributes a great deal of his time to equality and diversity. He represents the Midlands Circuit on the CPS/Bar Diversity & Inclusion Group as well as the LGBTQ+ Sub-Committee of the Birmingham Law Society.

Expertise

Crime

Joshua has a professional interest in Rape and Serious Sexual Offending. He has a particular interest in crimes within the LGBTQ+ community and brings an invaluable insight and tact when routinely prosecuting and defending such matters.

He has considerable experience at prosecuting multi-handed County Lines drug conspiracies as a junior alone. He also enjoys the challenge of complex case work involving homicide and serious violence. His plain-speaking approach to presentation makes even the most complex of evidence accessible for the jury.

He is a hard-working, well-organised and diligent junior who isn't afraid of bringing his own views and experiences to the table.
