

Laura Vickers

Call: 2007

Laura Vickers practices solely in the field of Family law and is a specialist in children law.

Expertise

Family

Laura is an experienced children law specialist.

She represents parents, local authorities and children at all stages of proceedings in every tier of the Family Court. Her cases often involve complex issues such as inflicted injuries, sexual abuse and psychological trauma.

Although a robust advocate, Laura remains mindful of the emotional needs of her clients. She is skilled in representing those who may be vulnerable through mental ill-health or as a result of their circumstances and experiences.

Laura is also a qualified Family Mediator.

Fabricated Induced Illness

Laura has appeared in several cases involving complex allegations of FI and is adept at dealing with expert and clinical evidence.

Non Accidental Injury

Laura has a wide breadth of experience dealing with cases of alleged inflicted injuries, and is frequently instructed on behalf of local authorities, parents, interveners and children alike.
