

Lucie Penn

Call: 2023

Following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Steven Fisher, Lucie took tenancy in October 2025, joining the Personal Injury and Clinical Negligence group.

Lucie continues to develop on her busy court practice, regularly appearing for both Claimants and Defendants. Lucie has acted on a wide variety of personal injury matters in small claims and fast track trials, involving matters of road traffic liability disputes, credit-hire, public liability and employer's liability. She also receives regular instructions for disposal hearings, MOJ Stage 3 hearings, infant approvals and interim applications. Alongside this, Lucie has built a busy paperwork practice. She is regularly instructed to settle pleadings and to advise on liability and quantum.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Lucie worked as a County Court Advocate with LPC Law, during which she appeared in various hearings including interim applications and small claims.

Outside of Court, Lucie has enjoyed travelling to places such as Vietnam and the Philippines, as well as volunteering in Sri Lanka and Bali.
