Expertise

Crime

Martin has extensive experience in the most serious categories of offences against the person, drug-related crime and commercial fraud.

Martin has experience of video link and appellate work, including Judicial Review, Trading Standards, health and safety at work and road traffic.

He also has experience in the application of the law relating to firearms, matters involving claims of public interest immunity and matters involving expert evidence.

Martin has appeared in disciplinary tribunals and injunctive relief associated with pending criminal proceedings, as well as inquests.

Criminal Fraud & Proceeds of Crime

Martin Liddiard is regarded as one of the UK's Leading Juniors in Complex Fraud and Money Laundering Cases and has been regularly cited in the Legal 500. His instructions cover all aspects of this area of the law with notable large scale investigations including Operation Duma, Vex, Inertia, District and many others.

He has a keen eye for the essence of a case combined with excellent strategic abilities invariably put in place at an early stage. Mr Liddiard instils immediate confidence in all who instruct him, lay and professional clients alike.
