

Sanjay Toora

Call: 2013

Sanjay Toora specialises in Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Law with a particular emphasis on Refugee, Human Rights and EU Settlement Scheme cases.

Expertise

Immigration

Sanjay is a highly experienced advocate who regularly appears before the First-tier and Upper Tribunal (Immigration & Asylum Chamber) in both publicly and privately funded matters. His practice spans a wide range of complex immigration and human rights issues, including deportation appeals, deprivation of citizenship, cases involving trafficking and modern slavery, and judicial review proceedings.

Asylum

Sanjay has extensive expertise in asylum law and frequently challenges refusals of asylum and family reunion applications in the First-tier Tribunal. He has represented clients from a diverse array of countries, including Iraq, Iran, India, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Angola, Nigeria, Namibia, Zimbabwe, The Gambia, Cameroon, Egypt, Eritrea, Thailand, China, Mexico, Georgia, and Albania.

Family & Private Life

With a background in family law, Sanjay brings a nuanced understanding to cases at the intersection of immigration and family proceedings. He is particularly adept in handling complex Article 8 ECHR cases concerning private and family life—such as those involving long residence, partners, children, and adult dependent relatives—appearing frequently in the First-tier Tribunal in such matters.
